Good Morning,

Since we have been talking about being “Anchored in Truth and Rooted in Love”, I thought of an article I wrote for a Wilderness Trek we went on a few years ago. We had to create a new rule to stop pushing the trees over. As odd as it sounds, there are certain places in Colorado where the ground is so rocky that the trees cannot form very large or deep root systems. So, you have these very large trees, at least they seem that way to someone born and raised in West Texas, that can be brought down with very little force. Anytime a large storm – or a slightly wild group of teenagers – occurs, it results in hundreds of trees being knocked over. No matter how big and strong the tree may look, if it does not have a good root system it won’t hold up.

As we face storms and trials in our lives it is important to pay attention to how we are anchored and rooted. It does not matter how passionate you are or how strong you look, if your foundation is not rooted in God you can become easily swayed or discouraged. The writer in Psalm 1 put it this way:

Blessed is the man
who walks not in the counsel of the wicked,
nor stands in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the seat of scoffers;
but his delight is in the law of the Lord,
and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree
planted by streams of water
that yields its fruit in its season,
and its leaf does not wither.
In all that he does, he prospers.
The wicked are not so,
but are like chaff that the wind drives away.

So let each of us ensure we are deeply “Anchored in Truth and Rooted in Love”.

In Him,

Luke Bower
